

Dear McDonald's,

Pizza Hut is moving into burger territory with a "you've-got-to-see-it-to-believe-it" new product.

To help us, we're recruiting a burger expert. So, you might want to review your employment contract with a certain high-profile, mask-wearing, burger-loving staff member of yours.

Chances are, once he tastes our new secret weapon, he'll want to jump ship.

In fact, he's welcome to send us his CV!

To apply, go to Pizza Hut Australia's Facebook page for more information.

Warmest regards,
Pizza Hut
