ALL MARKETS REJOIN

- 5:30 pm The Nazi Gold Train - There's the whiff of a fantastic James Bond plot about it: in the last days of World War Two, an armoured train rumoured to be loaded with Nazi gold and stolen treasure vanishes somewhere in the Polish forest. Shortly afterwards the nearby castle Furstenstein is captured by the advancing Red Army while it is the middle of a major renovation to create a new HQ for the Nazi elite, complete with secret passages, tunnels and subterranean armament factories. Seventy years later, treasure hunters claim to have rediscovered this mysterious train hidden in one of these tunnels beneath many meters of bedrock and concrete. It seems unbelievable, and yet, could there be some truth in these incredible stories? (From Germany, in German) (Documentary) PG CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production)
- 7:30 pm This Is Greece With Michael Scott - This final episode explores the Dodecanese Islands. After traveling through the islands, Michael ends his journey on the island of Symi. From Symi, he reflects on the Greece he has seen: a place at the edge of worlds and yet so often at the very centre of attention, fought over and occupied by many, but also distinctively Greek, somewhere you can escape the real world and simultaneously come face to face with some of history's hardest truths. (Part 4 of 4) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) G CC Final Episode
- 8:30 pm Egypt: What Lies Beneath? - By using cutting-edge satellite technology, and both high res and infrared imagery, Dr Sarah Parcak and her team hope to be able to 'see' under the desert sands – and will attempt to use this new information to create the most comprehensive map of ancient Egypt ever seen. For the first time, using stunning data-driven CGI, an ancient Egypt never before imagined, is brought to life in a cinematic adventure that could re-write our understanding of this ancient land. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC
- 10:15 pm The World's Most Dangerous Journey - World Exclusive: What would you risk for freedom? Dateline journeys through one of the world's most dangerous jungles, a route populated by drug traffickers, bandits and migrants searching for a new beginning. We attempt what no one has filmed before - migrants on the way to USA risking death, drowning, deadly snakes and drug traffickers in the search for a better life. (An SBS Production) (Rpt) CC
- 11:25 pm The Hidden Side Of Google - With 66 billion euros in revenue by the end of 2014, Google is the richest search engine company in the world and has become ubiquitous to the point of being used as a verb. By being ever present in our lives, Google has got to know a lot about us. But how much do we really know about Google? How did the big teenager become a giant octopus, a data swallower who took the opportunity to sneak itself into so many practical and free services that have become a vital part of our lives? Search engine dominance, data privacy violations, tax avoidance, stressed out employees: gain an exclusive insight into the dark side of Google. (From France, in English & French) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) G CC

- 7:30 pm Tony Robinson's Wild West - How The West Was Won - This episode focuses on two of Tony's obsessions from his childhood love of Westerns - cowboys and gun slinging outlaws. It also asks the question, who were the real winners of the West? Tony starts by looking at the birth and relatively short life of the cowboy in American culture (they arrive post-Civil War in 1865 and are becoming redundant before the end of the century) and then focus on the lives of the famous outlaws, including Calamity Jane, Jesse James and Wild Bill Hickok. He also tells the story of the civilising of the West and the arrival of thousands of farmers who gradually took over the land and created the mid-Western mindset of modern rural America. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 2 of 3) (Rpt) PG CC
- 8:30 pm 24 Hours In Emergency – Stiff Upper Lip – Eighty-five-year-old Maura is rushed into A&E after falling over during the night at home. Her son Mark and his family found her face down on her bedroom floor when they arrived to take her out for the day. Maura has pain in her back and medics are concerned that she can't move or feel her legs. (S.8 Ep.15) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) M(A,L) CC

- 7:35 pm Heston's Great British Food - *Afternoon Tea - In tonight's final episode, Heston gives the classic British afternoon tea a few very special twists, conjuring something the Mad Hatter himself would be proud of. Heston does his own take on the Victoria sandwich cake. Inspired by a visit to Wedgwood fine china manufacturers, he makes an edible cake stand out of sponge and adds some 'sandwich' cakes that look like smoked salmon and cream cheese, but are in fact sweet cakes made from Earl Grey sponge and blood orange pâté de fruit. For tea, Heston brews a Darjeeling and hedgerow infusion and cucumber sandwich tea leaves. There's also a sandwich casino inside a beautiful country house in Staffordshire, where the guests are able to eat the playing cards, casino chips and even the gambling table. And there's one last surprise, with a chocolate teapot that pours Earl Grey chocolate tea. (From the UK) (Food Series) (Rpt) G CC
