ALL MARKETS REJOIN

- 5:30 pm Motor Sport: Dakar Rally 2017 - Coverage of the Dakar Rally 2017. This year will see the addition of Paraguay, the 29th country in its history. Australian winner of the 2016 Motorbike Class, Toby Price, will seek to defend his title. (Sport) (Motor Sports) CC
- 6:00 pm Air Crash Detectives - Bakers Creek, Australia, 14th June, 1943. For the men about to board "Miss Every Morning Fixin", the pressures of the War had been eased by a period of rest and relaxation in Queensland, but they were about to return to war operations in Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea. They were never to return. Shortly after take-off the aircraft plunged into the ground killing everyone aboard - apart from one survivor, who would spend the rest of his life coping with the injuries he received that day. This accident is still Australia's worst ever plane crash and yet it was hushed up by the Australian and US governments until after the war had ended, with the relatives being told that those on board had perished in a crash over the South Pacific. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:30 pm Tutankhamun: The Truth Uncovered - What killed King Tutankhamun? Ever since his spectacular tomb was discovered, the boy king has been the most famous pharaoh of all ancient Egypt. But his mysterious death, at just 19 years old, has never been explained. In this special documentary, presenter Dallas Campbell reveals new scientific research and carries out unique experiments to get to the truth. For the first time, a virtual autopsy of Tut's mummified body reveals astonishing secrets about the pharaoh. This is an epic detective story that uncovers the extraordinary truth of the boy behind the golden mask. (From Scotland, in English) (Documentary) (Archaeology) (Rpt) G CC
- 8:35 pm Ancient Egypt's Lost City - Swallowed by the Sea - In the fading days of the Pharaohs, the city of Heracleion was the gateway to Egypt and a port beyond compare. Despite its importance, Heracleion mysteriously disappeared from history as if wiped from the face of the Earth. This documentary follows a team of maritime archaeologists as they uncover glorious temples, statues, houses, and boats lying perfectly preserved beneath the sea. They provide a unique snapshot of Egyptian life over 2,000 years ago. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC
- 9:45 pm Confronting Isis - Reporting from Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Jordan and Turkey, Frontline correspondent Martin Smith presses government and military officials to describe the conflict from their perspective and give their recommendations on how to move forward. Confronting ISIS examines the successes, failures and challenges of the US-led fight to degrade and destroy ISIS. No one wants to see ISIS succeed, but the lack of common priorities between the US and Middle Eastern allies has complicated the fighting process. This two-hour special investigates as ISIS loses ground in the region, but strikes out abroad. (From the US) (Documentary) (Class.tba) CC **Premiere****

Yves Saint Laurent - Yves Saint Laurent is a spectacular celebration of the famous and flamboyant designer's artistry, drive and inspiration. This fascinating biopic focuses on Yves Saint Laurent at the zenith of his celebrity and explores his relationships, neuroses, addictions and insecurities. The always charismatic Gaspard Ulliel delivers a compelling performance as the tortured iconoclast, ably supported by Aymeline Valade and Léa Seydoux as his muses. However, it is the performances of Louis Garrel as the preening model and Jérémie Renier as Pierre Bergé that are the real stand-outs. Saint Laurent's fall from grace and his subsequent rise to fame are well known, but this fascinating film adds new layers to his story of redemption. Be prepared for a continuous display of covetable garments that serve as a reminder of the true genius behind the aloof façade of Saint Laurent.
