ALL MARKETS REJOIN

- 5:00 pm Small Business Secrets - Explore the biggest investment a small business can make - employees. Check out how Jewel Fine Foods handled recruiting a hundred new staff to cater the Sydney Olympics; and gain some staffing insight from Carman's Muesli founder Carolyn Creswell. The Australian Institute of Music gives a few tips on how small businesses work in harmony with their employees, and go for a drive with Uber drivers who are making the most of the ride-sharing economy. (Ep.17) (An SBS Production) (Rpt) CC
- 5:30 pm Wwii Air Crash Detectives - On a cold dark night in February, 1943, five trainees aboard a B-25 Mitchell Bomber struggle to find their bearings. Confused at their exact whereabouts the aircraft finally slams into Sharp Top Mountain high above the American town of Bedford in Virginia. It was the third training crash in the area that night – and the worse. What really caused this accident? Was it because of "Pilot Error", equipment failure, bad weather, or could the mission have been doomed from the beginning? We join enthusiast Don Yeargin as he pours over the official reports, newspaper clippings and telephone transcriptions together with Computer simulations to demonstrate how this tragic accident was more a failure of procedure than Pilot error. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production)
- 7:30 pm Cleopatra's Lost Tomb - An insight into the pioneering work of criminal lawyer-turned-archaeologist Dr Kathleen Martinez, who has made it her life's mission to locate Cleopatra's final resting place. Very little evidence of her tomb has ever been uncovered, but Kathleen's radical new theory on Cleopatra's identity has led her to search where no one else dared. Her hunch stunned the archaeological establishment as she uncovered a hidden network of tunnels and a vast city of the dead, as well as a 35-metre deep underground hole that bears all the hallmarks of a burial shaft. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 8:30 pm Egyptian Vice - The Ancient Egyptian elite were more than just rich with history. In this two-part series narrated by Alexander Siddig, with exploits that could've been ripped from the pages of modern magazines, experts will recount tales of excess wealth and discuss the scandalous vices of the era. The pharaohs would do anything to attain power: murder, incest, seduction, and political backstabbing. (Part 2 of 2) (From the US) (Documentary Series) (Class. Tba) CC Final Episode
- 9:20 pm Chasing Pluto - On July 14, 2015, the New Horizons spacecraft, one of the most advanced spacecraft ever built, flew by Pluto and took the very first detailed images of the planet. After a nine-year journey of three billion miles, the spacecraft finally got a detailed look at this strange world at the very edge of our solar system. Back on Earth, a small group of planetary scientists who have spent decades working on this mission anxiously wait to receive a signal from their spacecraft. New Horizons stands poised to provide the first close look at a vast realm of icy bodies lurking beyond Neptune, relics of the earliest days of the solar system's formation. But will it survive the final, treacherous leg of its journey toward Pluto, which takes it through a dangerous field of debris? (From the US) (Documentary) (Science) (Rpt) G CC

Sunday January 29th, 2017

- 10:20 pm Weirdest Weather In The Universe - Our weather is extraordinary, from bowling ball sized hailstones to twisting tornadoes, but even the most extreme weather witnessed on Earth cannot compare to the weather on the other planets in our solar system, or even planets millions of light-years away, across the universe. Visiting state of the art laboratories and using amazing CGI images, this documentary will recreate the weather on these planets and illustrate worlds that not even the most creative science fiction writers could imagine. (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC Premiere
- 11:20 pm Operation Grand Canyon With Dan Snow - In the ultimate test, Dan Snow and a team of modern adventurers take on the massive historical challenge of reliving the first ever exploration of the mighty Colorado River through the Grand Canyon. No one had ever attempted to brave the Grand Canyon and its many dangerous rapids until a band of Wild West pioneers took it on in 1869. In the final episode, Dan and the crew make use of the 19th-century surveying equipment that they have brought along on their journey, recording geological data and taking photographs of their surroundings with a period 3D camera. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 2 of 2) (Rpt) PG CC
- 12:25 am Baisikeli - From the small town of Iten, 2,300m above the Rift Valley in Kenya, to the raw energy of Kigali, Rwanda, this is a story about the potential of African cycling and its ability to restore faith to this most beautiful, difficult and enigmatic of sports. Could Africa be the next cycling powerhouse? This powerful and emotional documentary follows the Kenyan National Cycling team as they hope to emulate the success of their running brothers and make a career in the sport. (From South Africa, in English) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC

- 3:15 am Pq 17: An Arctic Convoy Disaster - From Russia to the freezing Arctic Ocean, Jeremy Clarkson tells the dramatic story of the Arctic Convoys of the Second World War. Together with moving first hand testimony from the men who served on these convoys, Clarkson reveals the incredible hazards faced by members of the Merchant and Royal Navy who delivered vital war supplies via the Arctic to the Soviet Union: temperatures of minus 50 degrees, huge icebergs, colossal waves, not to mention German U-boats and the Luftwaffe. It's no wonder that Churchill described the Arctic Convoys as "the worst journey in the world." Retracing the route of PQ17 from the Arctic to the Russian winter port of Archangel, Clarkson reveals how this joint Anglo-American convoy became, on the night of July 4th 1942, one of the biggest naval disasters of the 20th century. EASTERN STATES (NSW, ACT, VIC, TAS)

- 7:35 pm Hitler's Secrets - *The Monster - Having bathed in adulation and success for a decade, this episode discovers how Hitler reacts when the tide of war turns against him. As he struggles to stay in control, expert analysis reveals the darkest arts of his personality. Driven by his belief in a worldwide Jewish conspiracy, he accelerates the Holocaust and, gripped by obsession and denial, sacrifices millions of lives on the eastern front. Then, whilst others suffer, he retreats to the comforts of his palatial country home and drug addiction. There is no flicker of empathy in Hitler's mind, even as the country he says he loves starts to burn. (S.1 Ep.5) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (History) PG CC
- 8:30 pm Interview With A Murderer - Criminologist Professor David Wilson conducts a series of revealing interviews with convicted murderer Bert Spencer: the man never charged with, yet was widely suspected of the murder of paperboy Carl Bridgewater in 1978, a crime he's always denied. With a team of researchers from Birmingham City University, Professor Wilson re-examines the evidence surrounding both the murder Spencer was convicted for and the one he has never been charged with, challenging Spencer's account in direct exchanges. He gathers testimony from some of those closest to Spencer in 1978, the day Carl died. (From the UK) (Documentary) M(L) (Rpt) CC
- 10:00 pm Undressed - Undressed is a hands-on social experiment which sees two complete strangers meeting for the very first time, and undressing each other. With just 30 minutes to get to know each other, there's no time to lose. Inspired by research suggesting you can accelerate the process of attraction by encouraging physical and emotional contact, Undressed puts the theory to the test. With participants from a mix of different cultural backgrounds and sexualities, Undressed challenges preconceptions about race and sexuality.
