- 3:30 pm Neil Oliver: The Search for Alfred the Great - Neil Oliver is given exclusive access to a team of historians and scientists investigating the final resting place of Alfred the Great. Alfred's bones have been moved so many times over the centuries that many people concluded that they were lost forever. Following a trail that goes back over a thousand years, the team wants to unravel the mystery of Alfred's remains. Travelling from Winchester to Rome, Neil also tells the extraordinary story of Alfred's life: in the 9th century, he became one of England's most important kings by fighting off the Vikings, uniting the Anglo-Saxon people and launching a cultural renaissance. With the discovery of some unexpected new evidence, The Search for Alfred the Great reveals the extraordinary outcome of an important investigation. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC
- 4:30 pm Churchill: A Giant In The Century - Full of ups and downs, Sir Winston Churchill's life is a picaresque novel in its own right, following a dramatic curve with sudden accelerations and startling twists. The saviour of Europe, the war commander who could, through the power of speech, persuade a whole nation to fight back with fortitude, Churchill stands among the greatest figures of the 20th century. Carefully remastered and colored, this documentary draws from a wealth of visual and sound archives, to give an all-encompassing view of both the private and public man. Through the contrasted chapters of his existence, it thus offers a new, unseen before perspective on Churchill's character and how he related to power and his contemporaries in order to lift the veil on a colourful, puzzling, paradoxical and captivating personality. - 11:00 pm Atlanta - Go For Broke - Having spent the last of his money to get Paper Boi's song played on the radio, Earn is broke, and he's a bit troubled to learn that despite his recent rap success, his cousin Alfred is still making a living dealing drugs. Meanwhile, Earn tries to smooth things over with Van by inviting her out on a date. Considering his current financial state, he follows some sketchy advice about dating on the cheap which doesn't quite go as planned as his bid to spend as little as possible gets thwarted at every turn. Alfred and Darius go to meet their drug supplier to conduct a buy, but an unexpected change of plans leads the pair deep into the woods where they witness the darker side of the drug trade. - 11:30 pm Atlanta - The Streisand Effect - Outside a club, Earn, Alfred and Darius are approached by Zan, a self-proclaimed social media star who recognises Paper Boi and appears to be a fan of the rising rapper. The next day, the trio discovers that Zan is little more than an internet troll – albeit a popular one – who has started Tweeting smack about Paper Boi and posting unflattering Vine videos. Despite Earn's assertion that engaging Zan online will only make matters worse, Alfred is unable to ignore the slams against his music, which get increasingly worse, leading Paper Boi to take a more direct approach in a bid to stop the harassment. Still desperate for money, Earn goes to a pawn shop to sell a cell phone, but when Darius gets a "feeling" from another item in the shop, he convinces Earn to take it in trade instead of the cash, promising him a bigger return on his investment and setting off an unexpected chain of events.
